Reception Nativity

This afternoon, our Reception class performed their nativity at St Johns Church, in front of their parents/carers.

They did an amazing job and have worked incredibly hard to learn their lines and songs. The nativity is always such a special event and we are so glad that we were able to share it with parents/carers. As a school, we are so proud of our Reception class!

A New Baby!

We have had some very exciting news in school of a special baby – congratulations to Mr Cluskey and his wife on the safe arrival of their baby boy, Theo.

Happy Birthday

Happy Birthday to Mrs Nevison, our dinner lady who celebrates her 60th this weekend!

Christmas Cards

Children can send Christmas cards this year. Please make sure name and year group are on the envelope.

Christmas Outside Performance

Next Friday, we would like to invite parent/carers onto the school yard at 2.30pm for an outside Christmas song performance by classes Yr1 – Yr6. The children will sing some Christmas songs to end the term, weather permitting. Please can I ask parents/carers to socially distance, there is lots of space on the yard to ensure we all stay safe.
